

3

Reasons To Buy a Home in Today's Shifting Market

The housing market is moving away from the frenzy of the past year and its opening doors for you if you're thinking of buying a home.

1

From July to August, national prices dropped their most significant amount in data history dating back to 2016.

$449,000

$435,000

2

Housing inventory is higher than last year by

27%

Having more options can make the search for your home easier.

3

The median amount of time a house spent on market increased for the first time since June 2020.

Time Home Spent On Market

2021

2022

37 Days

42 Days

If you're ready to buy a home, now may be the moment you've been waiting for. Partner with a Homes for Heroes real estate professional to start the home buying process today.